Home Helpers donates to food pantry

By Dan Jones

The Grange is an organization that promotes family values by sponsoring activities that involve the entire family. These activities help both the youth and the adults to do their best work on various projects involving many types of arts and crafts and they compete against youth and adults of the appropriate age in other Grange Chapters throughout the State of Ohio.

The local winners of the State Grange awards were announced at their annual banquet held at the Presbyterian Church.

In the youth division, the participants listed by their age range were the following: Gavin Crockett, 9-11; Joshua Bell, 12-14; and Joey Bell (12-14) 2nd in Art Animals; Brandt Blosser (9-11) 2nd in Art-Plant Tree Flower, Canvas 1st, Casserole Carrier 1st. Casserole Carrier went Becky Ginnery 3rd in Afghan and 5th in Button Craft; Bryce Dennis (9-11) 2nd in Art Animal; Brandt Blosser (9-11) 1st in the Art "I Love My Home" contest; Brandt Blosser (9-11) 1st in Foam Bookmark and 5th in Button Craft.

Home Helpers challenged employees to a food drive for the local food pantry and collected over 400 canned items to donate to the local food pantry.

LANCASTER, Ohio – Michelle Duncan, SASU Coordinator, accepts the OIPP Promising Practice Award from Steven Dunn of the Ohio Injury Prevention Partnership (OIPP) Promising Practice Award from the Ohio Department of Health. This award recognizes outstanding community-based interventions aimed at reducing the incidence of injury and illness among Ohioans. SASU is an important acute care and post-acute care provider that provides medical withdrawal management services for individuals dependent on opioids, alcohol, and benzodiazepines. The goal of the program is to provide patients with an environment that will allow them to safely withdraw from drugs of dependence in a supportive and dignified manner, while using evidence-based practices to encourage continued sobriety. On average, SASU receives more than 100 referrals each month and admits more than 150 patients in a given month. The SASU program at Fairfield Medical Center became the first hospital in Ohio to be awarded a grant from the Ohio Department of Health to participate in Project DAWN (Deaths Avoided With Opioids Now). Project DAWN is a community-based overdose prevention program that trains FMC to provide Narcan kits free of charge to community members whose loved ones are battling drug addiction and/or are identified as being at risk of experiencing an unintentional overdose. The kits contain Narcan, an emergency medical agent used to stop opioid overdose, and are distributed to at-risk patients, including those discharged from the SASU, as well as family members, community members, special interest groups, and anyone who wishes to carry this life-saving medication. “I feel, through the SASU program, Fairfield Medical Center has been able to help change the public perception of addiction through community engagement, events and educational opportunities,” FMC Chief Nursing Officer Helen Harding, MSN, RN, CENP said. “We are very proud of the success of our program and the impact we have made on individuals in our community who are beginning their journey toward sobriety.” On Dec. 5, the SASU program relocated to Diley Ridge Medical Center, 7901 Diley Road, Medical Office Building 101, Canal Winchester, Ohio. This is a joint venture between Fairfield Medical Center and Diley Ridge to better serve the needs of SASU patients. Following the transition will be the launch of the Substance Abuse Program (SAP) of Diley Ridge Medical Center. The Subacuse Center is located at 253 Broadway Street, Lancaster. The Subacuse Big Band is under the direction of Dr. Charles Whitlett. For more information, visit http://www.fairfield.us.

FAIRFIELD COUNTY Foundation raises $95,809 with “29-Hour Give” event

Lancaster, Ohio – The Fairfield County Foundation hosted its annual “Cut Your Groove Out” event recently in conjunction with GivingTuesday, which takes place on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving Day to give giving season and inspire people to collaborate in making their local communities better.

This year’s 29-Hour Give event was the most successful yet, with the Foundation matching all donations made to local nonprofits in the county for 29 straight hours. The Foundation awarded a total of $29,000 in matching gifts to the 71 individual funds that received contributions, making the total award to participating funds $124,809.

The unprecedented success of the 29-Hour Give is a testament to the generosity of the incredible community we call Fairfield County. Fairfield County Foundation Executive Director, Amy Eiten said, “We are thrilled that the number of individual funds receiving donationsrose significantly from last year and that our donors and supporters throughout our Fairfield County continue to rally for our community and make such a special place.”

Non-profits and fund holders were encouraged to secure donations from individuals and have them contribute in-person or online between 8 a.m. on November 27 and 8 p.m. November 28. During the designated 29 hours, the Foundation matched funds on a proportionate basis. For more information about the 29-Hour Give, please contact the FairfieldCountyFoundation.org.

Local man places 1st in chess tournament

By Amy Kaell, Ph.D.

Recently, Dr. Chris Miller went to Syracuse University to compete in the 58th Annual NY Open and placed in the Unrated section. Chris is president of The Chess Club at SU and is currently ranked #7

Dr. Miller has been playing chess for 38 years, but since placing 2nd at Southern Ohio Open in 2018, Chris has been playing chess in tournaments.

Although Chris has only played in 1976 in a tournament at Ohio University and won $72.00. Over the years, he’s had an average success rate of 72%.

While playing in the tournament, Chris studied chess combinations for about two months to give his mind focused on looking ahead in the game.

As a result of his study, he noted that his opening stage was more about winning the opening, and then going on to win.

Why It Is Important to Cleanse Our Body of Toxins

How much do you know and understand about toxins? Think about some symptoms you may be experiencing right now or have experienced regularly. Such as: headaches, fatigue, poor appetite, bloating, digestive problems, and hormone imbalances such as PMS and difficulty with menstruation. With this said, a practice of Liver Cleansing/Purification has been a wonderful solution for many people who have experienced symptoms of toxic build up. Instead, in most cases, toxins clear up entirely.

If you would like to know more, sign up to listen in on the next Discover Wellness with Dr. Grilliot seminar at 6:30 p.m. December 11, Tuesday, January 8, or 29 that covers the topic of Liver Purification directly. Our opportunity to hear about these symptoms, how they are treated, and the individuals who are currently doing so or have completed 10 or 21 day programs. We are celebrating 10+ years of Liver Purification success stories. Check out our YouTube Channel via our website, www.nwcdrg.com to see some of these amazing stories for yourself!

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and goodwill towards men.”

“O Come Emmanuel” and “O Holy Night” find more appropriate than joyful music during this season. These hymns deal with the reality of chains, sin, and this earth in the shadow of death, rather than the things that looks for “wish of hope.” They bring to the minds of the Prophet Isaiah.

Holiday Indulgence in Moderation
With the holidays approaching, many people are concerned about their weight. While indulging in the traditional foods associated with the season is part of the fun, it is important to eat healthily and keep your weight in check.

Many people are looking for ways to avoid temptation or to maintain a healthy weight. Here are some tips to help you stick to your goal:

1. Plan ahead—whether you are preparing or attending a holiday meal, make sure to plan in advance. Consider making healthy choices and limiting the amount of rich foods you eat.
2. Make healthier choices—when you do eat rich foods, try to balance them with other healthier options. For example, a small serving of guacamole can help you feel satisfied and still allow you to enjoy the rich taste of the food.
3. Be mindful—pay attention to your hunger and fullness cues. When you are full, stop eating and focus on the experience of the meal.
4. Stay active—regular exercise can help you maintain your weight and keep you feeling good.

Whether you are hosting or attending a holiday gathering, it’s important to enjoy the season while still making healthy choices. With these tips, you can safely enjoy the holidays and still keep your weight in check.

Fairfield Heritage's Coronet Awards celebrate six remarkable transformations

Whether it's a home or a business, when a property is improved it is appreciated by the community. The Fairfield County Historical Society's annual Coronet Awards celebrate those restorations, renovations, and beautifications and honor the owners who have made a commitment to the future. Six properties were singled out from the long list of nominations: 434 E. Allen Street, 122 Tuffe Street, and 1377 Leslie Lane, all of Lancaster; 8651 Lithopolis Road, Canal Winchester; and the Mill Event Center and Mithoff, both in Lancaster. The awards were presented at FCHA's annual meeting on November 8, 2018.

434 E. Allen, the Carolyn Myers and Bob Clay home, was awarded for renovation and landscaping. The home is now a bit of paradise for its owners. The Mill Event Center, 431 South Columbus Street, and the Mithoff, 162 West Main Street, are both owned by Brad Hutchinson who also put considerable time, effort, and funds into bringing these structures, in various stages of disrepair, back to life. The Mill had been damaged by a first-floor fire before Hutchinson bought it. He repaired and renovated the structure, adding modern conveniences while keeping its beautiful historic character. It is now open to the public for events, and the second floor has been made into four spacious apartments.

The Mill Event Center and Mithoff had been considered for demolition due to its many years of neglect. The three-story building had been completely renovated from the ground up and the façade now boasts windows that are replicas of the originals, attractive paint and trim, interesting cornice pieces, and exterior lighting that perfectly reflects the blending of old and new. Both buildings have become showpieces and the Millhof, especially, contributed to the revitalization of downtown Lancaster. Businessman Don Cleropol, who accepted the awards on Hutchinson’s behalf, said the group have preserved the days of Hutchinson’s efforts and called the Millhof “the jewel of downtown.”

Congratulations to all the winners!

2019 dog tags now on sale

Fairfield County Auditor Jon A. Sine, Jr. announced that 2019 dog tags are now available.

A Kennel License is valid for housing the dogs for a year or other license, or exchange, or lease, and that it runs a high-volume breeder licensed under Chapter 956 of the Revised Code.

A couple “whooshes” of hot air and it slowly floated away, but before a soothing thing can be done, I can quickly have these puppies under your house and yard all those, am I going to be responsible for the sky now? We?

I've already got my paws full, with all the rest of the regular security, eating, and my high priority sleeping.

I think I will write a letter to the Top Dog magazine and inform them of my first personal experience with such matters.
