A-C Alumni - desserts and scholarships

By Carolyn Tilley

After a two year absence, the Amanda-Clearcreek Alumni Association met on June 4 for its annual meeting. Usually a banquet, the decision was made to try a desserts only with the meeting and scholarship presentation. The scholarship program had gone on the last two years with at least the seniors being publicly recognized last year. So all were very glad to see all of our recipients in person this year. Many scholarship donors were on hand to meet and have their pictures taken with the high school seniors just starting their college career or college students continuing their education. The Association and its Endowment Fund were able to present 63 awards for a total disbursement of $137,120.

The 50 and 60 year graduating classes missed being honored during the pandemic, so all three were honored, including this current year. One of the classes, the 1971 class, had met for their reunion and gathered enough monies to present two scholarships this year. The classes reported on their recent activities. The Alumni is always so impressed that so many donors come to meet their recipients, many from out of state. Pictures are taken of all of the scholarship students and sent to them, and to the donors or their families who could not be present. The Alumni Association wishes to thank all who continue to support our organization.

The recent 5K Race/Walk was a great success, but we hope even more will participate next year, always on Father's Day weekend Saturday in June. Coming up this summer is the golf tournament. This year we are partnering with the Boys Basketball Program and coach Jamie Justus for the July 23rd event. It will be held at the Circleville Country Club at 1 PM. A 4-person team will cost $240 with dinner and prizes included. There is still time to sign up at justus@amanda.k12.oh.us, or phone: 740-207-7262. Donations for prizes are appreciated. Come join for lots of fun and support the A-C boys' basketball program and the Alumni Association.

NEW BUSINESS: The Activities Committee set the dates of June 25, 2022 featuring David Spires, July 16, 2022 featuring Sweetwater and August 20, 2022 featuring The Roxy Jane Band for the Music in the Park series. Thursday October 27, 2022 is set for Trick or Treat and Monster Mash II.

Sewer: Two weeks ago with the high rains Stutske Construction used their vacuum truck and cleaned out the lift station at the plant. Because of the debris that flows to the sewer plant we need to vacuum the system every three months as part of a preventative program. We are also going to repair a section of sewer line from the Old Canal restaurant to Hometown Hotdog.

Street: Our solicitor is working on the Cincinnati Insurance lien and the role of ADR, DuraSeal and Kokosing Materials. It was learned that DuraSeal has been reorganized and may no longer be in business.

Police Department: Chief Mark Consolo sent statistics for the month of May. The department issued (22) twenty-two traffic warnings, (3) three traffic citations in, (12) twelve dispatch runs and (5) five mutual aid runs. Regular officers worked (272.25) two hundred seventy-two and one-quarter hours.

Fire Department: Chief Robert Price sent the run totals. For the month of May Station 631 made forty-seven (47) runs; Station 632 made twenty-three (23) runs; Station 633 made twenty-five (25) runs; and Walnut Township made twenty-nine (29) mutual aid runs.

Water: CT Consultants recommended that council award the meter bid to NECO Water and the tower bid to D&M Painting. Council authorized CT Consulting to apply for low interest loans for the village. Council passed Resolutions 1362 and 1362 approving contracts for meters and the painting and restorations. Both projects are to be started this summer and to be completed by the end of 2022.

The Ohio Water Development Authority granted 1.73% ten year loan to the village for the two projects. Also, we have a separate quote to clean the two wells that are not part of the OWDA projects.

The Baltimore Festival Pageant is going to look a little different this year. To beat the heat and keep the girls cool, the pageant will be held in advance at the Victoria Opera House (101 S. Main St., Baltimore) on July 30, 2022. The young ladies will compete on stage with a personal introduction, prepared speech and fish bowl questions.

The outgoing court will bid their farewells but will not crown new queens until August 4 on the opening night of the Baltimore Festival.

Please join us on Saturday, July 30 at 6:00 p.m. at the beautiful Victoria Opera House for a night of fun, excitement and mystery to see who will wear the 2022 Little Miss, Jr. Miss, and Miss Baltimore crown!

Please consider donating to the Baltimore Downtown Restoration Committee to aid in the restoration and revitalization of the Victoria Opera House and numerous other projects in Downtown Baltimore.

John M. Hay, Lincoln, and Fairfield County- Part II

By Carolyn Tilley

We are following the connection of Lincoln's secretary, John Milton Hay and his family on Crumley Road, Fairfield County. When Adam and Mary Hoeh, Hay, came to Ohio, they petitioned for the quarter of land at the end of Crumley. But Adam died in 1803 and left a will, the first probated in Fairfield County, which stated his wife and son-in-law Luke Ingram to be his executors. His named two sons, Jonathan and Peter, who were to have some farm animals after their mother died, but money was to be for land. At the time of his death most settlers had not been able to pay for their selected land at the land office in Chillicothe. So our records first show Mary owning the quarter of 160 acres in 1811. She died in 1815. There is no record of Adam and Mary's burial and being so early, we might assume they were buried on the property. Daughter Elizabeth Hay had married Luke Ingram, an early pioneer name here in our area, back in Virginia, and moved here with her parents it seems. Luke owned land in the east quarter, 60 acres next to the west quarter of his in-laws in 1813, but Elizabeth died in Ashland County where some more of the family had gone. Records show all the family signed the will as children and heirs, including son John in Kentucky, that we wrote about in Part I, the grandfather of our subject.

Oldest daughter Barbara married John Hartong in Virginia and after his death may have come here to marry again in 1819, but is buried in Indiana. John, the grandfather of our subject, was child two and Elizabeth Ingram number three. Catherine, child four, married Thomas Selby and died in Ashland Co. Eve Ann, no. 5, married in about 1802 to Jacob Leathers here but moved to Wayne County, Ohio and then Illinois where they had seven children.

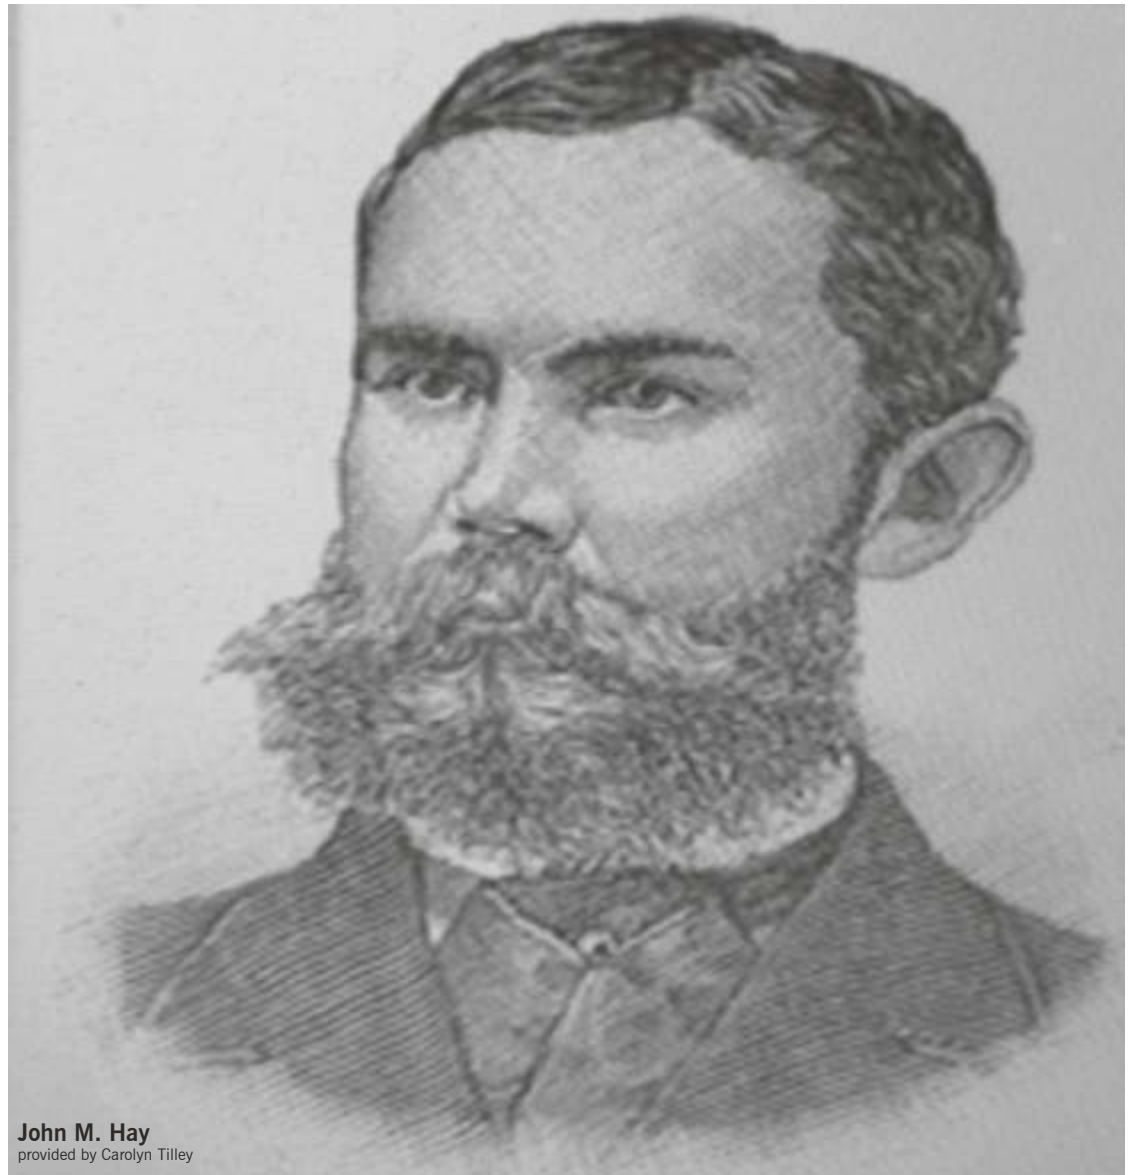

Susanna Hay, no. 6 child, married Tunis Newkirk and settled in Greenfield Township with 5 children, several staying here. There are Newkirk burial records but not the parents; stones may be gone. We found one son buried in a small cemetery in the Rock Mill area.

Daughter Rosanna, no. 7, married Owen Abbott in 1824. Records show Owen ran the store at Rock Mill, had two distilleries; one on the farm of his brother-in-law Peter Hay, number nine child, where he married Rosanna. He was Justice of the Peace for 15 years probably in Madison Township, where he ran a well-known store at Clearport. There many Abbots are buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery. Owen and Rosanna had two sons and three daughters. One son, Lafayette, was with Sherman's March to the Sea and lost an arm in the war. He lived until 1895. The family had come from Vermont; father Erastus died here in 1855 at age 89. Rosanna Hay Abbott aHay died in 1852 and Owen in 1862. The descendants continued to live in the Amanda area, and I knew many. One became my Aunt Florene when she married my Uncle Wallace Barr Sr.

Number 8 son was Jonathan Hay who married Elizabeth Hooker here but moved to Wisconsin. That brings us to son Peter, number 9, who stayed on our properties and is buried in Amanda Township Cemetery with his wife Christina Platter born in Ross County. They were married here in 1819 and had nine children. Family records say he had a mill on the property, which sold in 1830; surprising, as it is rather flat except for a ridge toward the west. So we wonder, what kind of mill? He was born in 1788 and died in 1852 and his wife in 1858. Buried with them are a baby Zelda, adult son Joseph, and adult daughter Catharine. Internet records show a Catherine marrying later, so we wonder about those records. Another daughter Margaret is also buried in Amanda Township Cemetery with her husband Col. David Schleich. Daughter Sarah Jane, "Jennie", married a Daniel Schleich who lived in Amanda, and the family records noted they are buried in the Amanda Presbyterian Cemetery, but there is no recorded record of them. Son Peter II is in the middle of the family with two more brothers Edward and Edwin, who are shown signing off on the properties. The youngest child of Peter is Leander Hay who married Melinda Strickler of Madison Township, daughter of Isaac Strickler. Both were land owners and farmers there. Well-educated Leander served as justice of the peace and township clerk. Their only son Frank married Rose Hanaway. The reason I mention these folks is to get back to the land transactions on our property, the two quarters at the end of Crumley Road from the curve in the woods to Rock Mill Road.

We will leave you until the next issue for the end of our story.

Liberty Union FFA Chapter attends FFA camp

Pictured are the FFA members who attended the state-wide camp. submitted

From June 6 to the 10th the Liberty Union FFA Chapter took 10 members to the Ohio FFA Camp Muskingum. FFA members from all over the state are welcome to participate in a 5-day program to put toward their State Degree, develop leadership skills, network and form new friendships.

Kids participated in group bonding games, high-ropes courses, boating, kickball tournaments, game nights and even hammocking.

"FFA camp is a lot of fun. It brings you many friendships and a lot of memories that you won't forget," secretary, Abby Sisson said when asked about her time at Ohio FFA Camp.

Camping at FFA Camp Muskingum is a staple of Ohio FFA and is a great way to get kids involved in the FFA world.

Pleasantville Sociables tour museum

submitted

The Pleasantville Sociables met on Wednesday, June 22 at the Pleasantville Community Building with 22 members in attendance. Our boat ride in August was discussed and money collected. With our trips being canceled, we decided to try out some of the county eateries. We will meet at Rushcreek Pub and Grub on July 19th at 11:30.

Andrew brought in some beautiful flowers for door prizes. Thank you, Andrew.

Our last trip was to the pencil sharpener museum and then we had lunch at Olde Dutch Restaurant in Logan.

Our next meeting will be July 27 at the Pleasantville Community Building. We eat at noon. Come early and catch up with your friends.
