Meet the Golden Girls of the Somerset VFW, American Legion Post 58

Pictured from left: Virginia Dittoe, Sharon Fiore, Marjorie Wilson, and Grace Barnes.

by Esther Mc Millen

The question presented to the Golden Girls is "What is the secret to health, happiness and longevity?"

Their simple reply is "Laughter and sharing a regular game of Euchre."

Virginia, Sharon, Marjorie and Grace, all Somerset residents, are auxiliary members of the Somerset Post 58 and meet regularly to share their friendship, catch-up on local news and share a game of Euchre. Stopping by the VFW to leave some Towne Crier newspapers, I couldn't help, but to stop by their table and say hello as they have such happy smiles that they extend to others as they walk by and give a happy hello greeting. We easily stirred up a conversation and I asked what game they were playing and I learned it was Euchre. I do not know how to play this game, but they readily shared the concept of the game. I ended up visiting with the ladies for an enjoyable half hour and in their hospitality they shared their Mortello's Pizza. I asked if I could share their happy faces with our Towne Crier readers and they agreed.

I learned that to be an auxiliary member of the VFW, a family member, husband, wife, son, daughter, brother or sister has had to serve in the U.S. Military. I learned the following:

Virginia Dittoe, her deceased husband, married for 66 years, James Dittoe, served in the Army during the Korean War. Sharon Fiore, husband Joseph Fiore, served in National Guard and her father-in-law, William Fiore, served in the Navy, during World War II.

Marjorie Wilson, first husband, Joseph Shiplatt served in the Army, during World War II and her son Paul Shiplatt, served in the Army during the Vietnam War. Her second husband Torrence Wilson served in the Army during World War II also.

Grace Barnes, husband Jack Barnes served in the Army during World War II, her sister, Phyllis Smith served in the Army as a nurse World War II and her brother, served in the Air Force as a Black Widow, World War II

God Bless them all and thank you and your families for their military service to these United States of America, allowing us all the freedoms we all presently share and enjoy. God please continue to bless America today and for our future.
